News:

GSAPP News & Events: Dec. 12 – Dec. 16

Visit the GSAPP website for the full schedule and location details.

NEWS

SHARON EGRETTA SUTTON

AND RESISTANCE, MARCH AWARDED 2023 TOPAZ THE POLITICAL ECONOMY OF STANDARDS AND GUIDELINES

MUNSELL HISTORIES OF ARCHITECTURAL HISTORIES OF ARCHITECTURAL HISTORY AND PRACTICE

A83 GALLERY

FAIRY TALE ARCHITECTURE

NEWS

The exhibition, FAIRY TALE ARCHITECTURE, is an exploration of speculative architecture, melding art, architecture, and literary critique. Structures that explore the relationship between fairy tales and spectacles that embody them are on display in the Parallel Rules exhibition.

EVOLUTION OF PRESERVATION

Construction waste has long been a bane of ecologically minded architects. So a trio of designers set out to make it a part of the building process. They've created a self-driven collective called Builders Reuse and are leading a movement of reuse.

ROBERT BEAUREGARD AND AVRAMI PUBLISHED BY ROUTLEDGE

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA PRESS

NOTES

The building is thought of as a collection of kits that could be assembled and re-used just as easily. At every corner, it looks as if the whole thing has been assembled from a lean kit of parts.

Ivi Diamantopoulou

Sunil Bald '91 MArch

Jing Liu

Pascale Sablan '07 MSAAD

Richard Gonzalez '08 MSAUD

SHARED TEACHING

Dean Andrés

Press Mailbox

I would like to be notified by email every time a notification is made. I can also be notified when there is a change to this list. Unsubscribe from this list by clicking the unsubscribe link at the bottom of this message.

Unsubscribe from this list

Received at 9:18 PM - 12/16/22