EVENTS

Friday, February 7, 6pm – 8pm | 204 Fayerweather Hall
RESUME WORKSHOP
Kaz Sakamoto, Adjunct Assistant Professor
In this session, Kaz will provide tips and strategies for creating a compelling resume that will catch the attention of potential employers. It will focus in part on graphic design concepts and tailoring resumes for different types of roles. This presentation will be followed by time to meet with Kaz or Mike for one-on-one resume review. Bring a hard copy of your resume if you intend to speak with them, and prepare some questions in advance.

Wednesday, February 12, 1pm – 3pm | 204 Fayerweather Hall
COVER LETTER WORKSHOP
Charlie Euchner, Adjunct Associate Professor
This session aims to demystify the process of writing cover letters by showing students how to lay out ideas and structure them. Charlie will demonstrate how to be brief and to the point, how to create focus, show value, and give the letter some narrative punch. Students may meet with Charlie after the presentation for individual consultation. If you intend to stay for this part of the session, bring a hard copy of your cover letter and prepare some questions in advance.

Tuesday, February 18, 1:15pm – 2:30pm | 114 Avery Hall
LiPS PANEL, WHEN PLANNER GOT POWER
Eugene Birch, Maxine Griffith, James Jao, Ron Schiffman, Weiping Wu
To celebrate the 30th anniversary of the New York City Planning Commission of 1989, we will be hosting a panel of former Commissioners, moderated by Weiping.

Wednesday, February 19, 1pm – 3pm | 204 Fayerweather Hall
LINKEDIN NETWORKING WORKSHOP
Michael Montilla, Urban Planning Program Manager
Did you know that many jobseekers find their jobs through networking? Effective networking can get you in front of hiring managers and give you inside information about companies, positions, and workplace culture. This information session will cover networking on LinkedIn and how to expand your network.
