

TECADEMICS
INCOME AND EARNINGS DISCLAIMER

Any claims made of actual earnings or examples of actual results should be viewed as entertainment or educational information based on subjective information. Your level of success in attaining any results used in any of our materials, presentations and the use of our products and materials depends on the time you devote to the program including, but not limited to, your ideas and techniques, your knowledge and various skills. Since these factors differ by individuals, we cannot and do not guarantee any success or level of results or average earnings.

Any use of numbers presented to the audience (whether to a single person or a group of people) is only being used to illustrate how numbers are required to make certain elements of the compensation plan work. This statement of policy applies to presentations in person or any other method of communication, including but not limited to the internet or via social media.

The numbers selected for the illustration are in no way a representation, suggestion, or an implied reference to an income a person might earn, can earn, or will earn.

The materials that make up our product and our website may contain information that includes or is based upon forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Any forward-looking statements give our expectations or forecasts of future events. You can identify these statements by the fact that they do not relate strictly to historical or current facts. They use words such as “anticipate,” “estimate,” “expect,” “project,” “intend,” “plan,” “believe,” and “could” and other words and terms of similar inference in connection with a description or an illustration to express our opinion of earnings potential. They are opinions only and should not be relied upon as fact. Do not construe any statement in this website, in our materials or presentations as a claim or representation of average earnings. There are NO average earnings. As well, testimonials and statements of individuals are not to be construed as claims or representations of average earnings. We cannot and do not, and will not make any claims as to earnings, average or otherwise.

Income or earnings statements (if any) are estimates of income potential only, and there is no assurance that your earnings will equal or exceed the figures we present. Any reliance you may place on the figures we present is at your own risk. Any income or earnings depicted are NOT to be interpreted as common, typical, expected, or normal for the average person. Any particular result may be exceptional, and the variables that impact results are so numerous and sometimes uncontrollable, that Tecademics makes no guarantees as to your income or earnings of any kind, at any time.

Where specific income figures are used, and attributed to an individual or business, those persons or businesses have actually earned those amounts. There is no assurance that your earnings or income will match or exceed those figures, or that you will make any money at all. If you rely upon our examples or figures, you do so at your own risk, and you accept all risk associated with your reliance.

Any and all claims or representations as to income earnings made on our web sites or in our materials or information or presentations are NOT to be considered as average earnings. Testimonials are not representative and although we attempt to verify them, we cannot guarantee we will locate where they were made so they can be verified. There are no assurances that any prior successes, or past results, as to income and/ or earnings, can be used as an indication of your future success or results.

Monetary and income results are based on many factors. We have no way of knowing how well you will do, as we do not know you, your background, your work ethic, or your business skills or practices. Therefore we do not guarantee or imply that you will win any incentives or prizes that may be offered, that you will make any income or earnings, that you will do well, or that you will make any money at all. If you rely upon our examples or figures, you do so at your own risk, and you accept all risk associated with that reliance.

Making decisions based on any information presented or provided in our programs, products, and services or on our website, should be done only with the knowledge and understanding that you could experience losses or make no money at all.
