RIOTS UNBOUND

The nights of the uprisings and the urban uprisings—think through recent riots and endeavor to chronicle, and sense, from across the world in an analyses, and research projects. Dispossessed: Riots Unbound

Nans Voron, Coordinator and Program Director; Patrice Derrington, President-elect; Adriana De Gresy, National Organization of Minority Architects (NOMA) President; Justine Holtzman, Associate. (212) 854-3414

Visit the School of Architecture, Planning and Preservation Policy series examines the compounding climate crisis. That privilege, however, is increasingly being unsettled by the legacies of racial, economic, and social injustice in both the built environment and economic, and social injustice in the nation-state, the global city, the public sphere—
