

50 Shades of Gay
Written, Produced, and Starring
Comedian Ike Avelli

Who Am I? I am a Comedian who has Written/Produced and Starred in 9 Original Adult Variety Shows since 2013, such as "50 Shades of Gay", "I Thought I Would Be Dead By Now" and "I've Slept My Way To The Top....Twice" among others, and all SOLD OUT various venues in the U.S. Most Recently, "50 Shades of Gay" SOLD OUT 4 nights at the Rochester Fringe Festival in Rochester, NY (2018) and Blue Velvet Theater at the Taj Mahal in Atlantic City (2015). For each of my productions, I have seven (7) to ten (10) costume changes, as well as One (1) Drag Artist (past shows have included artists from Rupaul's Drag Race), and One (1) Recording Artist. The amount of shows and requests for them have grown each year.

Intention: To be able to accept offers from venues to perform and continue traveling with "50 Shades of Gay" and my other productions domestically and internationally. To provide payment/travel/accomodations for talent as well as giveaways for audience members who participate in the show.

Benefits: Some of the festivals 50 Shades of Gay are attending at have an attendance of 70,000 during it's run, plus enormous exposure for your branding during World Pride in NYC (Summer '19).
