NOTICE: WARNING CONCERNING COPYRIGHT RESTRICTIONS

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17, United States Code) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted materials.

Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study scholarship or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement.

This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

The Library and Archives at the Center for Curatorial Studies at Bard reserves the right to determine whether materials in the collections can be photocopied or digitally scanned. No copying will be allowed which will damage or alter an item in any way. Copies provided remain the property of CCS Bard and cannot be published without permission of the copyright holder and CCS Bard. Please contact the CCS Director of Library and Archives to discuss permissions and use fees for publication.

I agree to abide by the statements of policy outlined above and to pay all fees assessed.
