To Whom It May Concern:

We sponsored Vikki Lenola the producer of The Vegan Fashion Show because we wanted to efficiently make an impact. After seeing the incredible results in the media, we knew we made the right choice. We saw results comparable to events with significantly higher budgets. Guests and participants of the show were interviewed and proved to be engaged and excited to learn about the cause and the brands contributing. The producer's experience in promoting causes and brands was evident. Sponsoring The Vegan Fashion Show was a good choice.

If anyone has further questions related to our partnership with Vikki Lenola the produce of The Vegan Show, feel free to contact me.

Warm Regards,
