TEFAF COLLECTIONS

To promote creative exploration and storytelling across artworks, eras, and mediums, TEFAF has created new TEFAF Collections in collaboration with some of the most illustrious minds in the worlds of art and design. These pages feature the favorite works of interior designer Pierre Yovanovitch, artist Erwin Wurm, Yale Center for British Art director Courtney J. Martin, designer Faye Toogood, curator Amin Jaffer, and Hispanic Society of America director Guillaume Kientz.

TEFAF STORIES & VIRTUAL PROGRAMMING

TEFAF Stories is a hub for articles, videos, and rich content that pulls back the curtain on the world of TEFAF. Editorial features will offer unique perspectives into the worlds of collecting, fine art, antiques, and design via profiles of art dealer and collector Axel Vervoordt, artist Hitomi Hosono, jeweler Otto Jakob, and more.

TEFAF Talks and Meet the Experts will continue from past fairs, showcasing live panels in partnership with the Financial Times and Apollo, and intimate conversations with leading dealers. Discussions will range from a debate on the rise of the private museum in the 21st century to a conversation on pioneering women collectors, whose visionary leadership is the foundation of some of the world's most renowned museums.

Artwork Highlights

Christophe de Quénetain's €200,000 Crab Hails from the Reign of Rudolf II

Crab (Italian Renaissance Inkstand), circa 16th century, presented by Christophe de Quénetain, is one of three works inspired by crabs which de Quénetain will present at the fair. The trio will reveal how artists across centuries and cultures have interpreted the symbol of the crab in art, which historically represents sensitivity, protection, shyness, and an emphasis on naturalism.

Bronze

14.5 x 10 x 4.5 cm (5.7 x 3.9 x 1.8 in.)

FD Gallery Showcases One-of-a-Kind Luminous Cartier Art Deco Natural Pearl Necklace

This midcentury natural pearl and diamond necklace, circa 1930 by Cartier and presented by FD Gallery, New York, is a one-of-a-kind creation from the most sought after period of Cartier's storied history. The asking price for this beautiful work is US$300,000–500,000.

Natural pearls, diamonds, and platinum
15 x 19.5 cm (5.9 x 7.7 in.)

Salomon Lilian Presents Extraordinary Pair of 17th Century Trompe L’Oeil Game Paintings

Pair of Still Lifes with Falconry Instruments by Christoffel Pierson (1631–1714), presented by Salomon Lilian, Amsterdam/Geneva, is part of the so-called trompe l’oeil game genre. These paintings gained popularity in the Netherlands in the mid-17th century and are extremely rare to be seen as a pair in such extraordinary condition.

Oil on canvas

79 x 110 cm (31 x 43.3 in.) and 79 x 109.6 cm (31 x 43 in.)

STEINITZ Showcases Cherished Rothschild Collection Work

STEINITZ, Paris, will present an extremely rare commode, circa 1765–70, by Bernard III Van Risen Burgh (d. 1760). The commode originally hails from the collection of Armand-Frédéric-Ernest Nogaret (1734–1806), Secretary to the King and Treasurer of the Count d'Artois, later becoming part of the Rothschild Collection for almost a century.

Oak carcass, Japanese lacquered panels, ebony veneer, gilt bronze, and portor marble
93.5 x 163.5 x 59 cm (36.8 x 64.4 x 23.2 in.)

Wildenstein & Co. Inc. Showcases Exquisite Gouaches of Versailles

Wildenstein & Co. Inc., New York, will present a Pair of Fan Designs Depicting the Courtyard and Garden Façades of the Château de Versailles, circa 1680, by artist Henri Gascar (1635–1701). Originally meant to be two sides of a folding fan, the gouaches were considered so precious they came to be treasured as works of art in their own right.

Gouache and gold on vellum laid on oak panel
22.4 x 42.8 cm. (8.8 x 16.8 in.)

Porcini Showcases a Rare Work by Giovanni Battista Caracciolo

Identified by Roberto Longhi (1943) as a work of Battistello (1578–1635), one of Caravaggio's leading and most genuine Neapolitan followers, this little panel, Holy Family with St. John the Baptist and St. John the Evangelist, complements a series of small-sized compositions that the artist painted around the beginning of the 17th century. These include a work that stands out for its very similar setting: The Annunciation, signed, displayed at the Wadsworth Atheneum, Hartford.

Oil on board

53 x 36 cm (20.9 x 14.2 in.)

Van de Weghe Presents Iconic US$2 Million Work From Keith Haring

Van de Weghe, New York, will showcase Untitled (Knokke #3), 1987, by Keith Haring (1958–1990). Haring created this work during a stint in Belgium when he had an exhibition at the Casino Knokke in 1987. The fish in the painting, called “haring” in Dutch, is traditionally eaten in this manner. The price of this work is between US$1.8 million and US$2 million.

Oil on canvas
99.5 x 99.5 cm (39.3 x 39.3 in.)

Brimo de Laroussilhe Presents Extraordinary Sister Work to Louvre Museum Ivory Masterpiece

Right Wing of a Diptych - Scenes of the Passion of Christ, circa 1280–1300, presented by Brimo de Laroussilhe, Paris, is the complementary wing to a work which has been housed at the Louvre Museum since the middle of the 19th century. Each wing, framed by a smooth edge, is divided into three registers by two mouldings sculpted with a frieze of roses. The asking price for this work is €380,000.

Ivory with traces of polychrome
18.4 x 9.2 x 1 cm (7.2 x 3.6 x 0.4 in.)

Galerie Chenel Presents Work From the Roman Gardens of Villa Pamphilj for €1.8 Million

Aphrodite, the so-called Venus Genetrix, 1st century AD, will be presented by Galerie Chenel, Paris. This splendid Roman sculpture of the goddess of love is striking in its sensuality and the realistic representation of her figure. Formerly in the Pamphilj collection, in the gardens of Villa Pamphilj in Rome, from at least the second half of the 17th century, the work was restored as Euterpe and reported in the same collection in 1850. It will be offered for €1.8 million.
