

Gray Foy: Book Signing

Friday, October 19, 2018, 6:00–8:00 p.m.

The Menil Collection Bookstore

1520 Sul Ross Street, Houston

Refreshments

menil.org

Lynn M. Herbert, essayist, is the former chief curator at the Contemporary Arts Museum, Houston; the author of numerous art catalogues and—as a horticulturist and organic gardener—A Garden Book for Houston and the Texas Gulf Coast.

Don Quaintance, Houston-based graphic designer and editor, has designed over 150 books and exhibition catalogues for museums such as the Philadelphia Museum of Art, Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, and The Menil Collection.

Gray Foy Drawings 1941–1975

A Landmark Rediscovery

First major monograph on a midcentury American artist

Designed and Edited by Don Quaintance

Foreword by Steve Martin

Essays by Lynn M. Herbert
Alexis Rockman

Gray Foy's drawings are delineated with such delicacy that it is as if the imagery miraculously had been blown into place.

—Robert Pincus-Witten

$60 / 204 pages / Cloth
172 color illustrations

callaway.com

CALLAWAY

NEW YORK

grayfoy.com

 @grayfoyaartist