Bare-Knuckle Cruiserweight Bout (225 lbs): Jared Torgeson (0-0) vs. Bryant Acheson (4-0)

Bryant Acheson -450
Jared Torgeson +350

We have a bare-knuckle cruiserweight bout between Jared Torgeson and Bryant Acheson in the co-main event.

Torgeson is 39, and he fights out of the Irish Hit Squad in Moses Lake, Washington. He has been competing in combat sports for nearly 20 years, with 45 professional MMA fights plus numerous boxing matches. As you would expect for a heavyweight, most of his wins have come by knockout, though he struggles on the ground. Fortunately for Torgeson, this is a bare-knuckle fight, so he won't have to worry about the ground, and instead, all he will have to do is punch his opponent in the face. If he lands a big punch, he will have the chance to score the upset win.

Taking on Torgeson in this cruiserweight bout is the local favorite, Acheson, a 40-year-old fighter from The Grindhouse in Billings, Montana. A longtime Fusion Fight League veteran, he first fought as an amateur in the promotion way back in 2010-2011. In 2019, he returned to combat sports as a professional, going 2-0 in FFL as an MMA fighter and 4-0 as a bare-knuckle boxer. He seems to have found his calling, and he enters this bout coming off a big knockout win over Jeff Souder in the main event of an FFL card last September, his highest-profile victory to date.

Although Torgeson certainly has a puncher's chance here as a big man with a lot of power in his fists, the smart money is on Acheson, who is as hot as they come right now. Take Acheson to score a fast knockout.

Pick: Bryant Acheson by KO/TKO -200

Featherweight Bout (145 lbs): Giovanny Meza (8-8) vs. Amari Sengsavanh (7-0)

Amari Sengsavanh -2000
Giovanny Meza +1200

We have what should be an exciting featherweight bout between Giovanny Meza and Amari
