Ana María Agüero Jahannes:

I am Ana María Agüero Jahannes. I really like to explore space and material, so I'm not afraid to try new things. I had a vision a long time ago to create the space that really brings together my past life as a super-athlete and also the community-organizing activism and healing for Black and trans people. Field Day reimagines track and field as a space for liberation, for expression, challenge, community through the sport. And I'm really curious to see what kind of world—what kind of institution—we could create if we have the resources and the space to let it all out.
