URBANPLANNING
NEWSLETTER
OCTOBER 22, 2020

Upcoming workshops:
A Haven: the multifaceted role of predominantly black neighborhoods in American history. This workshop will provide an in-depth exploration of the historical and social contexts behind the rise and fall of these neighborhoods. Participants will engage with key figures from the Black Power Movement, and discuss the significance of these communities today.

Wednesday, October 28th, 12-2PM
Location: Zoom

UP WORKSHOPS

Environmental Justice: Housing and Energy

This workshop will focus on the intersection of housing and energy policy, exploring how environmental justice is impacted by housing decisions. Attendees will have the opportunity to engage with experts in the field, including representatives from the City's Housing and Development Authority.

Monday, November 2nd, 1-3PM
Location: Online

STUDENT ORGANIZATION UPDATES

UP Program Council

The UP Program Council is hosting a meeting to discuss next discussion topics and accompanying resources. This is a great opportunity for students to get involved with the program and contribute to upcoming events.

Monday, October 26th, 3-5PM
Location: Online

LECTURE IN PLANNING SERIES

An Evening with Geon Woo Lee

Geon Woo Lee will discuss simple writing techniques to improve an English sentence. Geared specifically for non-native speakers, this lecture will provide practical training and resources for improving writing skills.

Wednesday, October 21st, 9AM
Location: Online

OTHER UPCOMING EVENTS

Faculty Updates

Join Adjunct Professor Richard Froehlich and four panelists for a discussion on the multifaceted role of predominantly black neighborhoods in American history. This workshop will provide an in-depth exploration of the historical and social contexts behind the rise and fall of these neighborhoods. Participants will engage with key figures from the Black Power Movement, and discuss the significance of these communities today.

Tuesday, November 2nd, 12-2PM
Location: Online

UPDATES

Unlearning Collective

Joining the Unlearning Collective is back and planning a meeting for upcoming events. Please join with this organization to support their efforts.

Other Upcoming Events

UPMentors Office Hours

apatkaning mentorship opportunities, meet with our mentors and discuss your career goals and Railroads' Role in Economic Development: A Haven for Urban Planning

Monday, October 26th, 3-5PM
Location: Online

UP Updates

Join Adjunct Professor Richard Froehlich and four panelists for a discussion on the multifaceted role of predominantly black neighborhoods in American history. This workshop will provide an in-depth exploration of the historical and social contexts behind the rise and fall of these neighborhoods. Participants will engage with key figures from the Black Power Movement, and discuss the significance of these communities today.

Tuesday, November 2nd, 12-2PM
Location: Online