Founded in 2021, the Board of Executive Protection Professionals (BEPP) consists of all volunteers, is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, and an ANSI accredited organization dedicated to elevating executive protection operations. The BEPP is committed to advancing the profession through the creation of industry standards, board certification, and other validation initiatives.

The Executive Protection Industry Needs Standards – Now

The BEPP is the only organization taking concrete steps to make that happen. The BEPP is developing the professional, foundational, and operational standards that will elevate the industry and ensure the safety of those being protected.

Mission Statement:

Our mission is to elevate the training, quality, and professionalism of the Executive Protection industry.

Vision Statement:

Make the Executive Protection industry professionalized and accountable by upholding unwavering ethics, standards, and competencies for the benefit of practitioners and all stakeholders served by the industry.

We will achieve our Mission and Vision by accomplishing the follow:

- ✓ Creating the first ANSI approved Standards for Providing Executive Protection
- ✓ Developing the first Board Certification for Executive Protection Professionals
- ✓ Providing an industry leading annual Executive Security Operations Conference (ESOC)
- ✓ Remaining open, transparent and inclusive to all those in the industry

EXECUTIVE SECURITY OPERATIONS CONFERENCE

The ESOC is a two-day conference where industry leaders, decision-makers, and executive protection professionals convene to participate in insightful educational sessions and cultivate meaningful relationships

Where: Disney's Yacht & Beach Club Resorts

When: June 3-5, 2025

The Board of Executive Protection Professionals (BEPP) is dedicated to raising the bar within the Executive Security Operations community. After years of attending industry conferences, we recognized a need for a more engaging and enriching experience for professionals in our field. This realization led to the creation of the Executive Security Operations Conference (ESOC), founded and hosted by the BEPP.

Included with each registration

1. Mailed credentials (CONUS)
2. Access to all fourteen (14) presentations during the ESOC
3. Complimentary breakfast, lunch, and mid-day snacks
4. Invitation to two (2) two (2) hour networking mixers with complimentary drinks and hors d'oeuvres
5. Printed and bound copies of all presentation materials, speaker bios, and sponsor information
6. Special Edition, Executive Protection Advance & Logistics Guidebook
7. Certificate of attendance for "Continuing Professional Education" credits
