*Honoring the,
“heart work”
of local social workers that is often unappreciated
and unrecognized.*

The mission of the SWAG Awards is to honor the “heart work” of local social workers that is often unappreciated and unrecognized.

This year marks the 5th anniversary of SWAG, and we are excited to celebrate this milestone. For the past 4 years, the SWAG Awards has been the premier ceremony in the Greater Pittsburgh region that honors the hard work of social workers. To date, we have recognized almost 50 social workers who have shown dedication, compassion, leadership, and selflessness in their profession.

During the 3rd Annual SWAG Awards, we received a special proclamation from the Mayor's office of the City of Pittsburgh, acknowledging the significant impact of social workers in the community. As a result, March 25 has been officially declared as SWAG day in Pittsburgh.

For the 5th Annual SWAG Awards, we will be recognizing not only 5 exceptional social workers but also 1 social work specialty category in the Greater Pittsburgh Area. These individuals embody servant leadership and demonstrate their commitment to promoting advocacy, social justice, generational health, and building stronger communities. They will be nominated by their colleagues and chosen by a nomination committee. Furthermore, we will be honoring a parental figure, guardian, or mentor of one of our awardees with the Andre B Hemby "There for Me" Social Worker Supporter award. This award is named after the late father of SWAG founder Sharise Nance, who provided unwavering support throughout her social work career.

The call for nominations will open on September 1, 2024, and the SWAG Awards ceremony will take place on Saturday, March 22, 2025, from 4:00pm - 7:30pm. The event will also include a social work meet and greet cocktail hour from 4-5pm.

“It was such an honor to be recognized by my peers for the Life Time Achievement Award. Often times as Social Workers, our work is not appreciated or taken for granted. I think of the countless times someone has said to me “I don’t know how you do your job” . It was a privilege to receive this honor, but I was so impressed by the S.W.A.G Team & their determination to make the awards event top notch & special for not only the honorees, but everyone in attendance. I’m proud to be a Social Worker and a Pitt Grad, but seeing ~~Sharise Nance’s dream come to fruition & the~~ professionalism of my colleagues on the S.W.A.G Team made me hold my head even higher. I’m grateful!”
