GSAPP News & Events: Nov. 14 – 18

News:

MIGUEL CALDERÓN

...for a recording of the presentation by the Center for Resilient Cities and Conference.

Director and Professor

the GSAPP MSAUD Program

Members of the winning team, which was advised by Adjunct Assistant received the Most Promising Preservationist Award! This is the second conference, a team of Columbia GSAPP students won the National

...as between di...

Unruly Sites of Repair in Rwanda

Planning, Peacebuilding, and society.

Her interdisciplinary work draws

Building Advanced V Studio

work is forefronting people and how they use buildings to reveal the Examining sites across the world, a consistent thread throughout their complexities among the actors and their actions mobilized in the

...denaturalize buildings by revealing the Curatorial, and Conceptual Practices Program at GSAPP.

...speculative architecture, melding art, architecture, and literary

Projects by GSAPP Faculty and Alumni-led

Honor of Steven Gregory

...debate on the intersections of architecture, food systems, and

Architecture Biennale to The Cooper Union

Lydia Kallipoliti

...to generate a profound

...good commentaries: we always show the raw stu

You

...as between di...

You

2022

2021

in

2019, Torkwase Dyson exhibited

...premiered at the 78th Venice

Germany. He was born in Kyiv,

Ameer Fakher Eldin

is a Syrian

Avery Hall 114

their unique narrative and

...section in the Penn Museum.

Avinoam Shalem, Riggio Professor,

Preservation Program at Columbia

...Green Professor of Anthropology in

...providing the introduction.

Edipo Re Award.

...International Film Festival (Giornate Durango), where it won the

...at Pace Gallery

...includes:

...and stay posted

* by Dean

...at Pace Gallery

...as part of the Preservation

...at Pace Gallery

...at Pace Gallery

...at Pace Gallery

...at Pace Gallery

...at Pace Gallery

...at Pace Gallery

...at Pace Gallery