

The Chicago Women in Business Conference

March 2023 - Navy Pier - Chicago, IL

The Chicago Women in Business Conference is a three-day, curated experience, designed to build, grow and develop the WHOLE woman. We are bringing together visionary, high-achieving and purpose-driven women by providing a platform outside of the workplace to equip, advance, and transform women from all walks of life, from the inside out.

Our purpose is to empower our attendees by creating a community dedicated to enhancing each other, our businesses, and the individuals who bring them to life. This trailblazing personal development experience will provide women with a vehicle to enhance their ability to lead with excellence at work and at home, by focusing on five pillars of success: Health and Wellness, Relationship Management, Strategy Development, System Creation and Personal Branding.

SPONSORSHIP BENEFITS

Sponsors will be recognized within event-specific promotion and general communications to include: print, digital, and organic and paid social media. Sponsors may also be included in on-site signage, giveaway items, media releases and publications. The CWB Conference will publish all sponsors in its annual report for the respective fiscal year. As a thank-you for your support, each sponsor will be invited to participate in and attend CWB events either free of charge or at a reduced rate.

We're open to all suggestions and would be delighted to partner with you to bring something truly amazing to our CWB professionals that will be in attendance at the conference. Complete our sponsorship application HERE.

Thank you in advance for your support,
