This half-day conference will feature round table discussions on economic, social and housing in communities setting in Mexico. The event will feature presentations by Tatiana Bilbao, MSAUD; Christie Marcella Hughes, MSAUD; Francisco Pardo '05 MSAAD; routing elimination and landscape; and public work among others. These events are organized by Architect and urban designer, Enrique Norten Cervantes Ignacio Urquiza. Amale Andraos, and Gabriela Etchegaray. Jorge Ambrosi Brüggemann, MSAAD; and Matt D. Viggiano, Lafourcade Canales.

Tuesday Talks:

This series is led by rotating faculty and students. This program opens a venue for students and educators to present their work; art and architecture; and public work among others. These events are organized by GSAPP. Virtual Tuesday Talks takes place on November 12, 1pm.

CAREER SERVICES

TOWARDS A PRACTICE

The talk will discuss the challenges of restoring the Battery historic cast iron and steel structure. This program is the second part of the M.S. in Real Estate program. Applications are now being accepted for the 2023 Obama Foundation Scholars Program. The deadline is January 2, 2023. This half-day conference will feature round table discussions on economic, social and housing in communities setting in Mexico. The event will feature presentations by Tatiana Bilbao, MSAUD; Christie Marcella Hughes, MSAUD; Francisco Pardo '05 MSAAD; routing elimination and landscape; and public work among others. These events are organized by Architect and urban designer, Enrique Norten Cervantes Ignacio Urquiza. Amale Andraos, and Gabriela Etchegaray. Jorge Ambrosi Brüggemann, MSAAD; and Matt D. Viggiano, Lafourcade Canales.

Tuesday Talks:

This series is led by rotating faculty and students. This program opens a venue for students and educators to present their work; art and architecture; and public work among others. These events are organized by GSAPP. Virtual Tuesday Talks takes place on November 12, 1pm.

CAREER SERVICES

TOWARDS A PRACTICE

The talk will discuss the challenges of restoring the Battery historic cast iron and steel structure. This program is the second part of the M.S. in Real Estate program. Applications are now being accepted for the 2023 Obama Foundation Scholars Program. The deadline is January 2, 2023. This half-day conference will feature round table discussions on economic, social and housing in communities setting in Mexico. The event will feature presentations by Tatiana Bilbao, MSAUD; Christie Marcella Hughes, MSAUD; Francisco Pardo '05 MSAAD; routing elimination and landscape; and public work among others. These events are organized by Architect and urban designer, Enrique Norten Cervantes Ignacio Urquiza. Amale Andraos, and Gabriela Etchegaray. Jorge Ambrosi Brüggemann, MSAAD; and Matt D. Viggiano, Lafourcade Canales.

Tuesday Talks:

This series is led by rotating faculty and students. This program opens a venue for students and educators to present their work; art and architecture; and public work among others. These events are organized by GSAPP. Virtual Tuesday Talks takes place on November 12, 1pm.

CAREER SERVICES

TOWARDS A PRACTICE

The talk will discuss the challenges of restoring the Battery historic cast iron and steel structure. This program is the second part of the M.S. in Real Estate program. Applications are now being accepted for the 2023 Obama Foundation Scholars Program. The deadline is January 2, 2023. This half-day conference will feature round table discussions on economic, social and housing in communities setting in Mexico. The event will feature presentations by Tatiana Bilbao, MSAUD; Christie Marcella Hughes, MSAUD; Francisco Pardo '05 MSAAD; routing elimination and landscape; and public work among others. These events are organized by Architect and urban designer, Enrique Norten Cervantes Ignacio Urquiza. Amale Andraos, and Gabriela Etchegaray. Jorge Ambrosi Brüggemann, MSAAD; and Matt D. Viggiano, Lafourcade Canales.

Tuesday Talks:

This series is led by rotating faculty and students. This program opens a venue for students and educators to present their work; art and architecture; and public work among others. These events are organized by GSAPP. Virtual Tuesday Talks takes place on November 12, 1pm.

CAREER SERVICES

TOWARDS A PRACTICE

The talk will discuss the challenges of restoring the Battery historic cast iron and steel structure. This program is the second part of the M.S. in Real Estate program. Applications are now being accepted for the 2023 Obama Foundation Scholars Program. The deadline is January 2, 2023. This half-day conference will feature round table discussions on economic, social and housing in communities setting in Mexico. The event will feature presentations by Tatiana Bilbao, MSAUD; Christie Marcella Hughes, MSAUD; Francisco Pardo '05 MSAAD; routing elimination and landscape; and public work among others. These events are organized by Architect and urban designer, Enrique Norten Cervantes Ignacio Urquiza. Amale Andraos, and Gabriela Etchegaray. Jorge Ambrosi Brüggemann, MSAAD; and Matt D. Viggiano, Lafourcade Canales.

Tuesday Talks:

This series is led by rotating faculty and students. This program opens a venue for students and educators to present their work; art and architecture; and public work among others. These events are organized by GSAPP. Virtual Tuesday Talks takes place on November 12, 1pm.

CAREER SERVICES

TOWARDS A PRACTICE

The talk will discuss the challenges of restoring the Battery historic cast iron and steel structure. This program is the second part of the M.S. in Real Estate program. Applications are now being accepted for the 2023 Obama Foundation Scholars Program. The deadline is January 2, 2023. This half-day conference will feature round table discussions on economic, social and housing in communities setting in Mexico. The event will feature presentations by Tatiana Bilbao, MSAUD; Christie Marcella Hughes, MSAUD; Francisco Pardo '05 MSAAD; routing elimination and landscape; and public work among others. These events are organized by Architect and urban designer, Enrique Norten Cervantes Ignacio Urquiza. Amale Andraos, and Gabriela Etchegaray. Jorge Ambrosi Brüggemann, MSAAD; and Matt D. Viggiano, Lafourcade Canales.

Tuesday Talks:

This series is led by rotating faculty and students. This program opens a venue for students and educators to present their work; art and architecture; and public work among others. These events are organized by GSAPP. Virtual Tuesday Talks takes place on November 12, 1pm.

CAREER SERVICES

TOWARDS A PRACTICE

The talk will discuss the challenges of restoring the Battery historic cast iron and steel structure. This program is the second part of the M.S. in Real Estate program. Applications are now being accepted for the 2023 Obama Foundation Scholars Program. The deadline is January 2, 2023. This half-day conference will feature round table discussions on economic, social and housing in communities setting in Mexico. The event will feature presentations by Tatiana Bilbao, MSAUD; Christie Marcella Hughes, MSAUD; Francisco Pardo '05 MSAAD; routing elimination and landscape; and public work among others. These events are organized by Architect and urban designer, Enrique Norten Cervantes Ignacio Urquiza. Amale Andraos, and Gabriela Etchegaray. Jorge Ambrosi Brüggemann, MSAAD; and Matt D. Viggiano, Lafourcade Canales.