The internet, online gaming, social media...our children are at risk of being sexually exploited every day. Often, the perpetrator will be someone the child knows or thinks they know. Please come hear a panel of professionals with first-hand experience involving cases of human trafficking and commercial sexual exploitation of children discuss this important issue affecting our community. Topics discussed will include:

- Awareness - It's happening here in Westchester
- Vulnerabilities - Selfies to Sextortion: The role of the internet and social media in the exploitation of youth
- Indicators of Concern - Learn the "red flags" of potential exploitation
- Prevention is Key - Tips to keep your child safe
- What to do - If you suspect a child is being exploited
- Q & A
