GSAPP News & Events: April 27

1. News: Columbia University
   - A student from the Class of 2022 has been named one of the 2022 Campbell Award recipients. This award was established in 2016 by the Columbia University Trustees and the Columbia Alumni Association (CAA) and is presented to a graduating student at each School who exemplifies exceptional leadership and the Columbia spirit as me.

2. MSRED student
   - The thesis project is about courtroom evidence and the history of forensic documentation. This is important to me because it opens up a new perspective on the role of evidence in legal processes.

3. Dual-degree MArch and MSCCCP student
   - The thesis project is about the contemporary issues facing the Arab world. Learn more on the GSAPP website for more info.

4. CELEBRATING ARAB HERITAGE: PIERPAAO MARTIRADONNA
   - MSaad serves as architect, artist Simone Leigh at 59th Venice Biennale art for U.S. pavilion featuring Amenities can make space for social equity and justice.

5. Archinect
   - Dezeen publishes an op-ed by Interim Projects' Joanne Hayek on the future of social justice initiatives as a component of social justice issues.

6. Architects Insight
   - The recent article features exceptional insights into the role of the justice system as a component of social justice issues.

7. Committee, and chairwoman of the City Council
   - The panel discussion among newly elected council members will be held on Zoom, the Urban Planning Program Council will host a panel discussion among newly elected council members.

8. Today, April 28, at 5:30PM in Fayerweather 209 and on Zoom
   - The Urban Planning Program Council will host a panel discussion among newly elected council members.

9. Pierina Ana Sanchez
   - The refreshments will be provided from 5pm for in-person attendees.

10. Chi Ossé
    - The council meeting will be held on Zoom, the Urban Planning Program Council will host a panel discussion among newly elected council members.

11. More info
    - More info is available on the GSAPP website.

12. GSAPP RECOMMENDS
    - The round-up of publications from 2021 and 2022 by GSAPP faculty, CBAC, and more. Check out our round-up of publications from 2021 and 2022 by GSAPP faculty, CBAC, and more.