The International Student Financial Aid Application is designed to gather information from international students who are applying for financial aid at Yale School of Architecture. When completing the application, it is important to:

- Answer all questions that apply to you and your family.
- Convert all currency figures to U.S. dollars ($) before entering them on the form.

Some of the questions on the International Student Financial Aid Application are self-explanatory; the instructions that follow are only provided for questions that may need further explanation.

Section A—Student’s Information
This section pertains to the student who is applying for aid.

Section B—Parents’ Information
On this application, “parents” means the custodial parent(s) — biological or adoptive parents (or legal guardian). If the student’s biological or adoptive parents are divorced or separated, each parent may complete and submit a separate International Student Financial Aid Application.
