CONFERENCES

On November 13 and 20, GSAPP hosts a two-part conference on housing, public health and spatial justice, racial equity, and climate justice. In 2020, compounding crises across the globe encompassing economic injustice, racial inequity, and climate change have ignited public dialogue and urgent calls for action. Research and policy experts at Columbia GSAPP lead conversations on how the field can respond to interlocking issues in public health, water, housing, infrastructure, migration, resilience, and resistance.

PART 1
HEALTH AND THE CITY

November 13, 1pm

PART 2
CLIMATE JUSTICE AND THE CITY

November 20, 1pm

GSAPP Faculty Malo Hutson, Hilary Sample, and Laura Kurgan in conversation with invited guests.

GSAPP Faculty Reinhold Martin, Kate Orff and Thad Pawlowski, and Erica Avrami in conversation with invited guests.
