INSPIRING OTHERS

WHO WE ARE.

GTJ is a non-profit platform that provides access to training, one-on-one personal guidance and mentoring for young people with the aim of getting them into the corporate world. We are driven to help assist graduates in identifying their key skills to gain competitive advantage when applying and interviewing for some of the most rewarding and competitive internship and graduate programmes in the UK

WHAT WE DO.

Coming from backgrounds in Consultancy, Finance, Investment banking, IT and Communications, we are a team of young individuals with vast experience in the job application process.

We are here to provide at no cost, bespoke career guidance and coaching to help you through what can often seem a daunting and challenging process. Our service is free
