Where are you from?
Shanghai, China

What and where did you study for your undergraduate degree?
Shanghai Jiao Tong University, studying Mechanical Engineering.

Why did you choose to study at the University of Connecticut?
I chose to study at the University of Connecticut because of its strong reputation in Mechanical Engineering.

What have been your favorite classes so far in college?
My favorite classes have been Mechanics of Materials and Thermodynamics.

What do you enjoy doing in your free time?
In my free time, I enjoy playing basketball and hiking in the mountains.

UNCOMMON EVENTS

"Global Classroom Conference", Friday, October 11, Bannatyne Hall, 5:30 PM
A day-long event that brings together students, faculty, and guest speakers from around the world to discuss global issues and learn about different cultures. The event features keynote addresses, panel discussions, and interactive workshops.

UNCUT/UNCUT Film Festival, Thursday, October 17, Bannatyne Hall, 7 PM
The film festival showcases a variety of films from different countries and cultures, providing attendees with a diverse and thought-provoking experience.

"Meet & Greet with Prof. Richard Evans", October 17, The Hub
A casual meet and greet with Prof. Richard Evans, where attendees can ask questions and get to know the professor better.

"The Next Generation: Emerging Leaders in Business" panel discussion, October 18, Bannatyne Hall, 6 PM
A panel discussion featuring successful business leaders and entrepreneurs, highlighting their experiences and offering advice to aspiring leaders.

"The Future of Work: A Conversation with Prof. Susan Meinel" talk, October 19, The Hub
A thought-provoking discussion on the impact of technology on the future of work, featuring a keynote address by Prof. Susan Meinel, followed by a Q&A session.

"The Power of Storytelling: A Workshop on Narrative Techniques" workshop, October 20, Bannatyne Hall, 10 AM
An interactive workshop that teaches attendees how to effectively use storytelling in their personal and professional lives.

"The Art of Public Speaking: A Workshop with Prof. John Miller" workshop, October 21, The Hub
A hands-on workshop that focuses on developing effective public speaking skills, with practical exercises and feedback from experienced instructors.

"The Future of Education: A Conversation with Prof. Jane Doe" talk, October 22, Bannatyne Hall, 7 PM
A conversation with Prof. Jane Doe, exploring the trends and innovations shaping the future of education.

"The Science of Happiness: A Workshop with Prof. Daniel Reinhart" workshop, October 23, The Hub
A workshop that explores the science behind happiness and well-being, offering practical strategies for achieving happiness in daily life.

"The Art of Leadership: A Workshop with Prof. Charles Brown" workshop, October 24, Bannatyne Hall, 10 AM
A workshop that focuses on developing leadership skills, with practical exercises and feedback from experienced instructors.

"The Future of Technology: A Conversation with Prof. Jane Smith" talk, October 25, The Hub
A conversation with Prof. Jane Smith, exploring the latest advancements in technology and their impact on society.

"The Power of Creativity: A Workshop with Prof. Susan Lee" workshop, October 26, Bannatyne Hall, 7 PM
A workshop that explores the role of creativity in problem-solving and innovation, offering practical strategies for developing creative thinking skills.