Education from the heart♥

Junior Genius Global and Junior Genius Ireland

founded by Andrea Jebb are sister companies offering Early Education and Wellness services. They are the largest privately owned childcare facility in Ireland. Junior Genius Global's mission is to create healthier, future generations with a specifically curated and innovative early year's wellness program for schools. They provide equal support to children, teachers, and parents.

Children's Mental Health Ireland

a non-profit organization founded to address the mental health challenges of children in Ireland by delivering comprehensive wellness programs in schools and homes. Their goal is to promote awareness and identify specific needs of children by providing educational programs and resources, advocating for local and international policy changes.

Global Wellness Institute's Wellness for Children Initiative

founded in 2016, chaired by Christine Clinton. The initiative aims to educate and provide support to children and their families to develop healthy habits in the formative years. Wellness for Children supports the GWI Wellness Moonshot – A world free of preventable diseases. Christine was the recipient of the Debra Simon Award for leader in Furthering Mental Health at the Global Wellness Summit.
