AUGUST 12-14, 2022

ABOUT

Following an incredibly successful first year, Interstellar Music Festival is set to expand in a huge way for 2022. Taking place from August 12-14, our sophomore event will be hosted at the Kentucky Speedway, located just 35 miles south of Cincinnati. The venue is constructed on a beautiful 1,100 acre stretch of land with campgrounds. Over 100 artists will perform on state-of-the-art stages, surrounded by a dazzling arrays of art installations.

The Kentucky Speedway is a 1.5-mile tri-oval track in Sparta, Kentucky, which has hosted ARCA, NASCAR and Indy Racing League racing annually since it opened in 2000. The property boasts some beautiful scenic sites, including a massive stretch of campgrounds. Depending on layout and configuration the track facility has a grandstand capacity of 107,000, which provides Interstellar the opportunity to scale over many years to come.
