

OCTOBER 24 – 28

Midreview presentations continue this week! A schedule is posted on the GSAPP website, and will be regularly updated to include the most recent information. Faculty and students are invited to join the following presentations:

- Architecture Core III Midreview: October 24, 27
- Architecture Core I Midreview: October 26, 28

MARK WASIUTA

October 24, 4pm
Buell 200N

Air as Archive

Mark Wasiuta is co-director of the MSCCCP program at GSAPP. His research exhibition practice focuses on the agency and ontology of documents and archives for architecture through under-examined projects of the postwar period.

2022 Plein Air Talks is organized in conjunction with the advanced studio series “Plein Air” taught by Nahyun Hwang, initiated in the fall of 2020. The series explores the complex material and socio-political performance of air, and the intersectional vulnerabilities and agencies of air as a critical spatial medium.

ARCHITECTURE, LAND, GROUND

October 27, 12pm
Hybrid

Architects Tatiana Bilbao (Tatiana Bilbao Estudio), Michael Meredith (MOS Architects) and Gary Leggett (Leggett & Cahuas) compare notes on recent and current projects in Mexico, Paraguay, and Peru that cover vast ground. They will address the formal and social possibilities that are opened by large-scale buildings in these different social and political contexts, including land-intensive housing projects, parks, and long-distance works such as pilgrimage routes.

Organized by the Buell Center as part of the “Conversations on Architecture and Land in and out of the Americas” series.

RECOVERY AND RESILIENCE

October 27, 2pm
The Atrium @The Forum 601 W 125th St, New York, NY 10027

A round table reflection from the field and practice on housing, recovery, climate resilience and community-led strategies moderated by UP Assistant Professor Hugo Sarmiento and UP PhD Student Elizabeth Alvarez. It features University of Puerto Rico, Rio Piedras faculty members Lyvia Rodriguez and Raul Santiago in conversation with Victoria Sanders from the New York City Environmental Justice Alliance, Dariella Rodriguez from THE POINT Community Development Corporation, and Paul Gallay from Columbia Climate School's Center for Sustainable Urban Development.

Sponsored by the Center For Sustainable Urban Development, the Environmental Justice and Climate Just Cities Network, the Coastal Resilience Network and the Institute of Latin American Studies (ILAS) at Columbia University.

SANDY+10: RESILIENCE, EQUITY, CLIMATE JUSTICE

October 28, 8am
The Forum at Columbia University 601 West 125th Street

This conference will create a space for reflection, collective learning and calls to action for a community of storm survivors, activists, practitioners, public servants, and academics whose life and work changed to meet the challenges of Hurricane Sandy recovery.

Hosted by the Center for Resilient Cities and Landscapes at GSAPP, Columbia Climate School, Columbia World Projects, Resilient Cities Catalyst, Open House New York, and the City of New York.

GIVING DAY: OCT. 26

Save the date for Columbia Giving Day 2022!

Each fall, Columbia University alumni, students, parents, friends, neighbors, faculty, and staff unite for 24 hours of giving back. You support the schools, programs, and causes that you care most about so more of our students, faculty, and researchers can turn knowledge into action and change the world for the better.
