The Tang hosting Summer Family events on Saturdays

The Frances Young Tang Teaching Museum and Art Gallery at Skidmore College will offer its Summer 2019 Family Saturdays, a series of multigenerational creative collaborations, from July 13 through Aug. 10 in Saratoga Springs.

Each program includes looking at artwork in the museum's summer exhibitions, discussing and sharing ideas and engaging in an art activity.

Summer exhibits include Streb Action; Elevator Music 39: Bug, Beauty and Bite; and Ree Morton: The Plant That Heals May Also Poison.

The free programs run from 2 to 3:30 p.m. and are suitable for children ages 5 and older, accompanied by an adult. Registration is required beginning one week before each program to 518-580-8080.

The schedule is:

- July 13: Superhuman Shields! — After exploring Streb Action and the message of overcoming one's fears and finding strength, visitors will create their own superhuman shields.
- July 20: Connecting Sound, Color and Movement — With the Elevator Music 39: Bug, exhibit, visitors discover how sense of sound and color can be closely linked through a digital application.
- July 27: Funky Storyboards — After looking at the whimsical Frank

Moore works on paper, based on the film and ballet "Beehive," visitors will create their own storyboard.

■ Aug. 3: Out of This World! — Come and explore works in the Tang collection of outer space and others that are inspired by the universe, then create a cosmic work of art.

■ Aug. 10: What a Relief! — After looking at works by Ree Morton, visitors will create their own wild multimedia relief using cardboard, model magic, felt, yarn, specialty papers, markers and found objects.
