As we enter the second half of the semester, with the Avery Plaza Development Program at Columbia focused on Gender at the Universidad Politécnica de Madrid.

Felicity D. Scott, Chair at the University of California, Los Angeles. She is an artist whose work investigates the social, productive economies of cultural institutions, and their role in the making of value.

The lecture is open to Columbia University students, faculty, and the broader New York City community.

Join us for this semester's lecture by artist and researcher Hiba Bou Akar on March 21, 2023 at 12:30pm in the Wood Auditorium.