

Lavanda's First LGBTQ+ Pride Festival at Boston Commons

06/28/2024 at 12:00pm-4:00pm
Parkman Bandstand, Boston Commons

Lavanda is pleased to announce our Pride Festivals, which will take place on June 28th, 2024 at The Parkman Bandstand. This is an Lgbt+ Music and Arts Festival all about local queer talent and intimate community bonding.

About Lavanda

Lavanda is a grassroots LGBTQ+ Music and Arts Festival aiming to build and support Boston's Queer Community. Founded by Emma Whitney in the fall of 2023, Lavanda was born out of a desire to create a place where queer folk can safely and freely express themselves while supporting LGBTQ+ artists.

Lavanda festivals provide a break from standard alcohol centered queer events by focusing on connection and hands-on activities. In addition to performances and vendor booths from queer folk, our festivals typically include free coloring pages and supplies, crafting kits, mocktails, and more.

Festival Information

This festival is completely free to attend and will include performances by six local LGBTQ+ artists: Chrysalis, Lauren Jean, Christian Inman, Kris Mccarthy, (Last artist name), and Kühlname.

Five to seven local LGBTQ+ Vendors selling upcycled clothing, prints, pottery, jewelry, and more. As well as free coloring pages, craft kits, and other activities to do while enjoying music or taking a break from shopping.

How To Attend

To let us know youre coming you cand RSVP on our website
<https://www.lavandalgbt.com/event-details-registration/pride-fest-2024>

More Lavanda

Website: <https://www.lavandalgbt.com> Email: lavandaboston@gmail.com
Social Media: @lavandaboston

Grassroots LGBT+ Pride Festival In Need of Donations

LGBT+ Music And Arts

Boston Massachusetts

05/05/2024

Lavanda be holding thier first ever Pride Festival, which will take place on June 28th, 2024 at The Parkman Bandstand. And they need community support!

About Lavanda

Lavanda is a grassroots LGBT+ Music and Arts organization bringing together Boston's Queer Community through monthly festivals. It offers a safe space for queer individuals to express themselves freely and supports LGBTQ+ arts. Unlike traditional alcohol-centered queer events, Lavanda festivals prioritize connection and hands-on activities. Alongside performances and vendor booths showcasing queer talent, attendees can enjoy free coloring pages and supplies, crafting kits, mocktails, and various other activities.

What We Need

- Audio Equipment and Generator - $1,450.00
- 13 Folding Tables - $250
- 26 Folding Chairs- $70.20
- 2 Tents - $300
- 5 Cases of Water Bottles - $31.45
- Cooler - $149
- Trash Receptacles - $94.99

Why and How To Help

Because Lavanda is new grassroots organization with a team made up of college students, they have a limited budget. They need community support to ensure this festival is a safe and supportive enviornment for the artists, vendors, and atendees.

You can help by donating to the Lavanda Indiegogo which offers $3 friendship bracelets, $5 custom coloring pages, and guest list spots for any festival in 2024 or 2025 in exchange for a donation.

If you would like to donate supplies, suggest a fundrasing idea, or connect further please email lavandaboston@gmail.com

More Lavanda

Website: <https://www.lavandalgbt.com>

Email: lavandaboston@gmail.com

Social Media: @lavandaboston

Contact Name: Emma Whitney
Tel. 703-624-0019
Email: lavandaboston@gmail.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Lavanda: A New Kind of Queer Space

LGBT+ Music And Arts

Boston Massachusetts

05/05/2024

Lavanda is a grassroots LGBTQ+ Music and Arts Festival aiming to build and support Boston's Queer Community. Founded by Emma Whitney in the fall of 2023, Lavanda was born out of a desire to create a place where queer folk can safely and freely express themselves while supporting LGBTQ+ artists.

Lavanda festivals provide a break from standard alcohol centered queer events by focusing on connection and hands-on activities. In addition to performances and vendor booths from queer folk, our festivals typically include free coloring pages and supplies, crafting kits, mocktails, and more.

Anonymous Quotes From Our Feedback Form

"It was so warm and welcoming! The food and the coloring and people selling crochet pieces and the music was magic"

"I felt so safe to exist as a queer person and appreciate art of all kinds."

"Loved the coziness of it and care that went into it."

Get Involved, Connect, and Learn More

Performer and Vendor Applications: <https://linktr.ee/lavandaboston>

Website: <https://www.lavandalgbt.com>

Social Media: @lavandaboston

Email: lavandaboston@gmail.com