

Young Curators of the Roaring Fork

The Aspen Art Museum's Young Curators of the Roaring Fork (YCRF) program is a six-month internship that gives high school students direct exposure to a collection of world-class exhibitions, artists, and ideas of an accredited contemporary art museum.

YCRF interns work together on all aspects of the curatorial process to produce an exhibition of artworks created by their peers.

Timeline

YCRF Applications Due:
October 21, 2016

Internship Meetings*:
November 1, 2016–April 18, 2017

Artwork Submissions Due:
January 27, 2017

Studio Visits:
February 7, 2017

Final Artwork Selection:
March 7, 2017

Youth Recovery Center Visit:
April 14, 2017

Exhibition Opening:
April 15, 2017

Exhibition Duration:
April 15–30, 2017

*Most meetings take place from 5–7 p.m., at the Aspen Art Museum in the Education Workshop, with dinner and public transportation reimbursement provided. YCRF interns are expected to participate in the following meetings:

November 1, 8, 15, & 29

December 6 & 13

January 3, 17, & 31

February 7, 14, & 28

March 7 & 14

April 4, 11, & 18

To Apply

Name: _____

Address: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

School Name: _____

Grade: _____

Personal Reference
(other than family member):

Have you been a YCRF intern before?

Please circle: YES NO

Please also tell us about yourself in an essay no longer than 500 words. Why does art interest you? What do you consider to be your best strength or skill? What do you hope to learn or gain as a YCRF intern?

Signature: _____

Date: _____

Please return this form and essay to ahenninger@aspenartmuseum.org by 5 p.m., October 21. For more information, contact Annie Henninger, Education Program Manager, at 970.925.8050.