ART & FASHION SHOW WITH RUBIN SINGER

FOLLOW YOUR

FILM FESTIVAL & ART FASHION SHOW FOLLOW YOU

The International Film Festival will bring together prominent figures from the worlds of culture, business, and art in New York. The event will kick off with a red carpet reception, welcoming guests, photographers, and members of the press.

The jury will be comprised of American filmmakers, producers, directors, and actors. The main program will showcase the finest short films from around the world, presented in English or with English subtitles. Winners in various categories will be selected by the jury.

The event will also feature a special fashion show by renowned designer Ruben Singer, known for his work with artists such as Shakira and Alicia Keys. Singer's notable creation includes Beyonce's costume for her Super Bowl performance in 2013.

Top Miami bloggers, media personalities, and fashion industry representatives will be invited to attend. The event is targeted towards individuals aged 25-65 with above-average income, including businessmen, athletes, artists, and those with a passion for film and fashion.
