

Photography Guidelines

The Menil Collection fosters direct personal encounters with works of art and welcomes all visitors free of charge to its museum buildings and surrounding green spaces. To ensure a meaningful experience for all of our visitors, photography in the museum galleries is not permitted.

The Menil Collection does welcome photography in the foyer and corridors of the main museum building. Photography is also allowed in the entry spaces of the Cy Twombly Gallery, Dan Flavin Installation at Richmond Hall, Menil Drawing Institute, and Byzantine Fresco Chapel. If you are uncertain whether photography is permitted in a particular area, please ask a Visitor Services Associate or Gallery Attendant.

Additionally, please note that flash photography, tripods, and selfie sticks are not permitted in any of the museum buildings.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

The Menil Collection

Professional/Commercial Photography Guidelines

For professional and commercial photography requests, please contact press@menil.org. All other image inquiries, including those related to scholarship and research, should be directed to rights@menil.org.

Many existing images can be found on:

- The museum website, www.menil.org
- Facebook, fb.com/menilcollection
- Instagram, @menilcollection
- Twitter, @menilcollection

Although the Menil Collection permits casual photography in the foyer and corridors of our main building, we do not allow organized photo shoots for weddings or special events in any of our buildings. Use of Menil restrooms as changing areas for organized photo shoots is prohibited.

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.
